The Berriozabal Collection

Biography

Maria Antonietta Berriozabal, a daughter of Mexican immigrants, was born in Laredo and grew up in San Antonio, TX. Berriozabal received a BA in Political Science from the University of Texas at San Antonio in 1979 and in 1981 she became the first Hispanic woman to be elected to the San Antonio City Council. She was part of a political machine during a period in which San Antonio’s most famous mayor, Henry Cisneros was in office. Berriozabal often dealt with issues in the community and family that were not addressed by the rest of the Council. Her drive to help people often put her in contention with the rest of the Council members as well as the Mayor. The trials and tribulations that she overcame helped pave the way for minority women to enter a political world that was predominantly dominated by men.

Her tenure as Councilwoman for District 1 lasted ten years from 1981 through 1991. In 1991 she lost her bid for mayor of San Antonio with 47% of the votes. In 1998 she also lost a bid for State Representative to District 20. Since then, Berriozabal has remained active in the community, often getting involved in projects that are aimed at better housing and families.
